PUBLISHERS' TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF ACCEPTANCE

- The publishers reserve the right at any time to refuse, amend, withdraw or otherwise deal with any advertisement without explanation.
- The publishers will not be liable for any loss or damage caused by error, late publication or failure of an advertisement to appear in a specified issue regardless of cause.
- Advertisements are accepted in good faith and the publishers will not be held responsible for any claims stated or implied by the copy received from the advertiser.
- Advertisers will indemnify the publishers in full against any loss, damage or other expense incurred as a direct or indirect consequence of their advertisement(s).
- Advertising orders containing conditions that do not comply with the publishers' conditions will not be accepted as binding, unless agreed in writing by the publishers beforehand.
- Advertisements will only be accepted on the understanding that the advertiser guarantees that such advertisements will not contravene the Trade Descriptions Act 1968 and any subsequent legislation.
- Advertisements will only be accepted on the understanding that the advertiser implicitly guarantees that such advertisements will comply with the British Code of Advertising Practice.
- Discounts on series advertisements placed will become invalid if the contract has not been completed within one year from the date of the first insertion. If the series contract is cancelled or not completed for any reason, the publishers reserve the right to surcharge the earlier insertions at the higher rate applicable.
- A minimum of 12 weeks notice of cancellation is required, otherwise advertisements will be charged for as scheduled.
- Copy must be supplied by the advertiser, in good time, without application from the publishers. Any reminder by the publishers should be regarded as an act of courtesy and not as an obligation. If copy is not received by the due time, the publishers reserve the right to repeat the last received copy.
- The publishers reserve the right to pass the cost of artwork to the advertiser. Any artwork or copy left with the publishers or their printers for more than one year after being last used will be destroyed.
- The publishers reserve the right to amend these Terms and Conditions of Acceptance and change future advertisement rates without prior notice and at any time. In such an event, advertisers have the option to cancel any remaining contract(s) without incurring extra charges.
- Invoices must be settled within 28 days of the invoice date unless alternative arrangements have been made with the publishers. Accounts that become 90 days overdue will be passed to agents for collection and all the debtor's advertising will be suspended until settlement of the outstanding amount in cleared funds.
- These Terms and Conditions of Acceptance are set out in accordance with UK Law and all parties hereby submit to the jurisdiction of UK courts.
